

VICE PRESIDENT

The Vice-President is an Executive Committee Member.

This member provides support to the President in their role and stands in for the President as required.

The Vice-President's role can also be used as a time of training and mentoring for a future role as President of the service.